

Barnluasgan

Part of the Forests of Mid Argyll and Kintyre

Facilities

Parking

Accessible facilities

Information

Wildlife hide

Fishing

There is a charge to park at some of our sites please refer to our website for details.

Head to our unstaffed information centre to learn about the wildlife at Barnluasgan.

You can also visit the Argyll Beaver Centre, just by Loch Barnluasgan, for more information about the local beaver population, and weekly guided walks. Please check the website for seasonal opening times: www.argyllbeavercentre.co.uk

The nearest public toilets and cafés are at Tayvallich, 3 miles south, or Crinan, 3 miles north.

Location

Nearest postcode: PA31 8PS

How to get here

Follow signs for Crinan until turning left onto the B8025 at Bellanoch. After about a mile, turn left towards Achnamara and you'll find Barnluasgan just after the junction on the left.

Barnluasgan Oakwood Trail ●●●

Explore the ancient Atlantic oakwoods between Loch Barnluasgan and Loch Linne. As well as a range of native broadleaves, there are great views over Knapdale Forest.

Loose gravel path with some narrow and uneven rocky sections. Several steep slopes with long flights of rough steps.

strenuous

1½ miles / 2.6 km
Allow
1 hour

Wildlife Trail ●●●

Stroll around picturesque Loch Barnluasgan and find out more about the amazing birds and beasts of Barnluasgan at the wildlife hide. If visiting at dawn or dusk, keep an eye out for swimming beavers and see if you can spot their well-camouflaged lodge.

Smooth, firm and generally wide gravel surface throughout. A short diversion to the wildlife hide is slightly uneven. Mostly flat with some short moderate slopes.

easy

1¼ miles / 2.1 km
Allow
1 hour

Loch Coille-Bharr Trail ●●●

Explore the abandoned village of Kilmory Oib and view the glittering waters of the loch on this beautiful circuit.

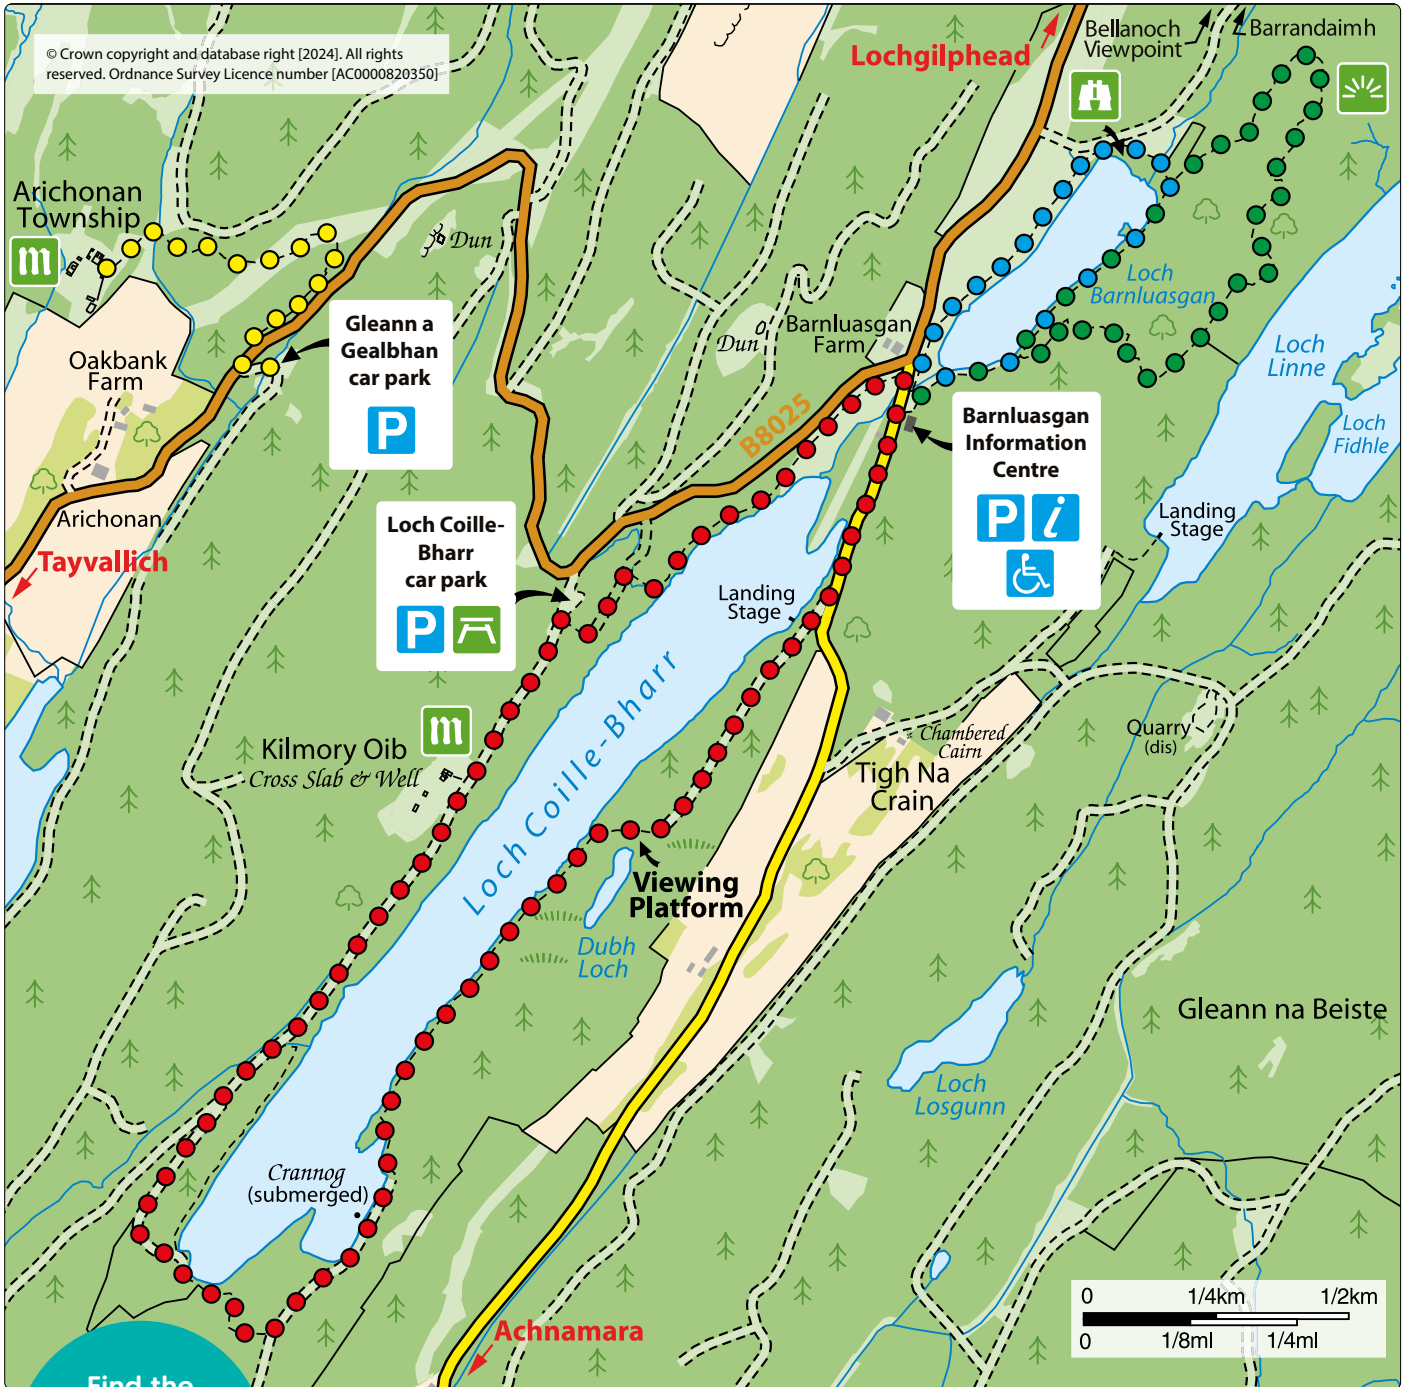

Numerous short steep slopes with rough steps. Some narrow and rough rocky sections. Short earth section includes tree roots and muddy patches. Includes narrow kissing gates and a road section.

strenuous

3¼ miles / 5.1 km
Allow
2 hours

Find the map for these trails on page 2

Find the yellow trail on the Gleann a Gealbhan
route card