How to get here

Trail Information

Torr Dhuin Trail ●●●

Climb steeply to an ancient hill fort perched on a precipice with surprising views over the Great Glen and Caledonian Canal. Follow the trail anti-clockwise for a less steep climb.
